

INDUSTRY INTERACTION IN THE RECENT TIMES

Year: 2016-2017	Semester: Odd
Resource Person: Mr. Narayan Renga, Executive Vice President, Strategic Accounts & Global Delivery, HTC Global Services, Chennai	Date of Visit: 9 th Aug 2016

Synopsis of speech delivered by the Resource Person:

Mr. Narayan Renga introduced himself and about his company in brief. He emphasized on the various skills companies look out in engineering graduates and advised them to develop their communication skills. He also spoke about the various job openings in the company up for grabs and the organization hierarchy.

Year: 2016-2017	Semester: Even
Resource Person: Ms Pooja Jain Head-HR Operations, Amazon India.	Date of Visit: 27 th March 2017

Synopsis of speech delivered by the Resource Person:

Ms Pooja has been associated for a long time with Amazon India. She gave a brief introduction about her career and her current role in Amazon India. She spoke about the importance of creativity, innovation and shrewdness needed by the graduates who go for recruitment. She told that the current recruitment scenario is very competitive and that graduates whom she selects needed a huge horizon of qualities.

Year: 2015-2016	Semester: Odd
Resource Person: Ms Shailaja Manoharan HR Manager, Vernalis Systems, Chennai.	Date of Visit: 18 th November 2015

Synopsis of speech delivered by the Resource Person:

Ms Shailaja was given a very warm welcome at our college. She was inspired by the training given for our students in the perspective of campus recruitment. She introduced herself and told about the opportunities in the current market for young budding engineers. She also differentiated how college life and corporate life are completely different and graduates should get accustomed quickly and progress in their career.

Year: 2015-2016

Semester: Even

Resource Person:
Mr. Pankaj Kumar
HR Manager,
Indus Software Technologies,
Chennai.

Date of Visit: 12th February 2016

Synopsis of speech delivered by the Resource Person:

Mr. Pankaj Kumar, delivered a short speech on “Employability skills for Software Industry”. He stressed the graduated to develop a liking for coding and testing. This would help them think analytically and logically. Both are needed to sustain the IT industry currently. He also discussed the requirements of his company from freshers and how the various training modules are planned for the graduates who are recruited.

Year: 2017-2018	Semester: Odd
Resource Person: Mr. Raaj Kumar, Head-HR Operations, Kaar Technologies, Chennai.	Date of Visit: 14 th October 2017

Synopsis of speech delivered by the Resource Person:

Kaar Technologies being a dream company for many graduates, Raaj Kumar exclaimed how they recruit the best among all the graduates eligible for recruitment. Rigorous testing procedures are adopted to select the best among the candidates. He said coding is fun and testing is joyful. He advised all the aspiring graduates who wanted to get placed in Kaar Technologies to be fluent in C, C++ and Java for better prospects.

Year: 2013-2014	Semester: Odd
Resource Person: Dr. A.K. Pattabiraman Head Accreditation Process Southern Region Tata Consultancy Services Chennai.	Date of Visit: 15 th October 2013

Synopsis of speech delivered by the Resource Person:

One of the senior most employees of TCS, Dr. A. K. Pattabiraman, apprised the students of the “New Trends in Recruitment Process of TCS”. He spoke of how companies change their recruitment trend as the technology develops. TCS is the first company that gives direct interview opportunities for toppers from among the graduates. He asked the students to make use of that opportunity. He also clearly explained the various roles that young graduates have to perform upon selection at TCS.

Year: 2013-2014	Semester: Even
Resource Person: Mr. B. Jeyakar, Former Chief Manager – Infrastructure, Bharat Petroleum Limited Chennai	Date of Visit: 3 rd February 2014

Synopsis of speech delivered by the Resource Person:

Mr. Jeyakar from Bharath Petroleum addressed the students of Civil and Mechanical Engineering streams as this was their core company. He brushed the students about the basic concepts that are applicable for working in the company. The students found the session very useful since an industry expert will make things practical and relate theory with hands on. He said that all PSU's have turned towards GATE score for recruitment of prospective candidates and asked the students to prepare well and crack the GATE exam. He also clearly explained how various theory concepts studied during engineering is applicable in industries like Bharath Petroleum.

Year: 2014-2015	Semester: Odd
Resource Person: Mr. K. Jayasankar Assistant Vice President (Technical) Ultra Tech Cement Limited, Chennai	Date of Visit: 26 th August 2014

Synopsis of speech delivered by the Resource Person:

Mr. K. Jayasankar from Ultratech Cements delivered a short lecture on “Challenges in Making a Durable Concrete”. The students of Civil Engineering benefitted immensely from the lecture. They could easily relate their theory subject “Concrete Structures” with his speech. The presentation was embedded with a lot of pictures and he clarified a lot of doubts asked by students in his field of expertise. He said that Civil Engineering is an evergreen department and that there are lot of opportunities constantly present as long as construction work is there in the world.

Year: 2014-2015	Semester: Even
Resource Person: Er. S.Selvaraj M.Tech, M.I.E Assistant Executive Engineer, TNEB, Chennai	Date of Visit: 24 th March 2015

Synopsis of speech delivered by the Resource Person:

Mr. S. Selvaraj from TNEB spoke about "SCADA Control" addressing the students from Department of EEE. He spoke about the basic concepts of power systems, grids and how to find if a grid is safe or not. Since he is from TNEB, he briefed the students about the problems faced during natural calamities like Tsunami, earthquakes, flooding and heavy rains. He stressed upon the need to react quickly and ensure safety for all since everywhere it is high voltage in operation.